Forecast for Sunday 14 Aug 2022

Weather: Dry morning with early mist on lower slopes soon dispersing leaving plenty of sunshine. It will begin to cloud over later in the morning with scattered showers breaking out during the afternoon and evening, especially over Perthshire hills. Some of the showers will be heavy and possibly thundery.

Chance of cloud-free hill tops above 800m: 90% lowering to 60% by early evening.

Low Cloud and visibility: Good visibility for much of the time with increasing cloud amounts, mostly above the tops. Visibility will become poor as heavier showers pass by, especially in southwest of area with extensive cloud cover above about 600m.

Met Office Aberdeen Meteorologist's View

Fine walking conditions in the morning but then an increasing risk of catching a heavy shower during afternoon and early evening, greatest chance over Perthshire hills. Small risk of thunderstorms.

Forecast for Monday 15 Aug 2022

Weather: Rather cloudy with further showers, some heavy and thundery. There will also be some drier, brighter interludes during the day.

Maximum wind: Winds will remain light, generally from a northeasterly direction, average speeds on tops of only 10mph.

Chance of cloud-free hill tops above 800m: 50%

Low Cloud and visibility: Poor visibility near heavy showers when clouds will be extensive down around 600 to 700m. Periods of good visibility coming along too with clouds lifting and breaking up between the showers.

Temperature: Glens: 20 Celsius.
At 800m: 14 Celsius.
Freezing level: Well above the tops.
